

CODE OF HONOR - Ekam USA EYAs

As an Ekam Youth Ambassador, I am eager to help the community, I accept this as my code and will follow it carefully and cheerfully.

Service: I will serve the local, state, national, and or global causes to improve the quality of life for others to the best of my ability and with compassion.

Respect & Professionalism: I will treat every individual I interact with care, respect, and professionalism.

Integrity: I will act with the utmost integrity in all my actions while serving a community in need. I will be ethical and accountable for what I do.

Volunteer Hours: I will report hours logged for the activities/projects weekly and accurately. I will not claim hours for service that I have claimed already with another organization.

Collaboration: I will collaborate with my team, EYA director, and the larger community to plan and execute work with open-mindedness and teamwork.

Confidentiality: I will maintain the confidentiality of information about individuals, groups, or organizations and promptly report any violations to authorized personnel.
